IN THE WILLIAMS ROOM.

Present : As per sederunt sheets

Apologies : M Bhebhe, N Williams, I Mitev

Attending : G Lee, J Harrison, G Tulloch, K McEwan

1. WELCOME

J McGrellis thanked council members for attending the first council meeting of 2013/14 and congratulated those members who had been newly elected in the autumn election.

2. Enhancement-led Institutional Review (ELIR)

Gavin Lee gave a short presentation on ELIR. Discussion followed.

G Lee requested that council members contact him in the next couple of days should they wish to have further input to the review.
G Lee informed council that they would be looking to invite some members to meet with the Review Team in February.

3. Introduction to Council

J McGrellis informed council that training would take place on the 9th November.

New council members were informed that their council email addresses would be available soon and that they would be contacted with details of how to access them in due course.

O Coombs asked council to use Student Voice as a means to contact students and added that school reps should receive notifications if issues are raised. Council were asked to feedback if they encounter any problems or have any comments.

J McGrellis encouraged council members to speak with one of the sabbatical officers before the next council meeting regarding their specific plans for the coming year.
Council were reminded to be sure to maintain dialogue with the wider student population and feedback to council on issues arising and results achieved.

J McGrellis informed council that the committee elections would take place toward the end of the meeting and outlined the possible changes to senate with the proposed introduction of a new council of senate. If passed the SRC would have 12 representatives made up of the 4 sabbatical officers and 8 college convenors with the convenors having the option to opt out if they feel they are unable to commit the time. Any unfilled positions would be elected. J McGrellis added that, as the new “Council of Senate” structure has not yet been approved, a further 4 council members would be elected to the general senate.

4. Minutes and Matters Arising

J McGrellis updated council on the apps being developed for the university and asked council to look at them and feedback any ideas to the sabbatical officers that could then be passed to IT Services.

J McGrellis confirmed that the SRC representatives would have a vote at the new Senate if the changes were passed.

O Coombs informed council that the Exam Feedback Working Group would be in the first week in November.

J McGrellis informed council that the proposed changes to the Scottish water charges at halls of residence would no longer be being implemented.

G Tulloch asked that it be noted that he believed he had submitted apologies for that meeting.

The minutes for the 18th April were approved.

The minutes for 26th September were approved after the amendment of a typo.

5. Reports and Updates

5.1 Freshers Week Report

B O’Connor requested that council who were freshers’ helpers to feedback on the report.
J McGrellis congratulated Breffni and all involved on organising a successful Freshers’ week.

5.2 Council Reports

J McGrellis thanked those council member who had submitted their reports and asked council members to ensure to submit a report for each meeting which would enable council to keep abreast of all current council member activities.

5.3 – J McGrellis SRC President

J McGrellis advised council of her concerns regarding aspects of the current consultation around Estates Strategy and intends to discuss matters with Estates and Buildings and Corporate Communications in the hope of developing the consultation processes to be more inclusive with greater capacity to engage students in.

J McGrellis informed council on some other developments from Estates and Buildings :-

- The university has secured heritage lottery funding to purchase the Kelvin hall.
- A new heating system will be being fitted in the university that will significantly reduce the carbon footprint of the university.
- Repairs to the bell tower have been requested.
- Installation of signage.

Lecture Recording - J McGrellis informed council that the issue of lecture recording was discussed at senate in October, noting that although very mixed feelings have been voiced on the issue, it was a worthwhile discussion. J McGrellis is hopeful that engaging with staff on the basis that it is an opt in rather than opt out policy will keep the issue moving forward.

O Coombs agreed that it had been a useful discussion and added that it would now be being taken to college level Learning and Teaching Committees to seek feedback on the policy, re-establish a working group and then remitted back to senate for further consideration.

Q – H T Chan asked why there was going to be a bank on campus.
J McGrellis responded that it does bring funding to the university that will in turn benefit students. In addition, the services being offered to students from Santander such as internships are positive. J McGrellis advised she would be observing progress of this proposal closely in order to ensure that any final decision concerning the presence of a bank on campus would be based on consideration of maximum benefits to students.

J McGrellis added that Santander have a good universities program.

Q - G Tulloch asked about Campus Conversations and whether it was open to all students.

J McGrellis responded that it was a staff event that council had been invited to but added that she felt it would have been useful for some students.

C Hoy asked what ideas J McGrellis had to improve engagement with the consultations among students.

J McGrellis responded that video promotion was a possibility and that corporate communications were currently working on a video although she is sceptical about whether it will appeal to students.

Improvements to the questionnaire to make it more relevant to were also suggested. J McGrellis asked council to contact her if they had any suggestions on how to improve the consultations.

5. 4 L Graham VP Student Support

World Aids Day - L Graham informed council that she had attended a meeting with D Newell and the Sexual Orientation Equality Officer L King to discuss the upcoming World Aids Day. An Edo Zollo art exhibition is to be held in the library during Welfare Week and the south front of the university will be lit up in red.

Plagiarism - L Graham informed council that she had submitted a proposal to the Student Support and Development Committee suggesting re-establishment of a plagiarism working group. In particular she had stressed the general lack of awareness amongst some groups of students as to what actually constituted plagiarism SSDC agreed a working group should be established.

5.5 B O’ Connor – VP Student Activities

B O’Connor informed council that Glasgow University Service to the Homeless (GUSH) had been required to change the location of its soup kitchen due to complaints from a multi-national bank. Consequently GUSRC require to decide whether GUSH should be supported/encouraged to operate independently. B O’Connor suspects that the upcoming commonwealth games may be the reason for the need to relocate and informed council that an article had appeared in the Glasgow Guardian on this matter. There will be a debate ‘This house believes that the deprived communities will be the real losers of the commonwealth games’ on Monday at 6pm and Breffni will keep council updated.

Global Entrepreneurship Week - B O’Connor informed council about Global Entrepreneurship week which begins on the 18th Nov in The Gilchrist. Council were requested to raise awareness of this event amongst postgraduate students.

B O’Connor responded that it had not yet been resolved.

B O’Connor informed council that one of the affiliated clubs had a licence to run a TEDx talk on the 15th March. At present they are concentrating on securing a venue. B O’Connor clarified that this was a different group than those who hoped to run one last year.

5.6 Oli Coombs VP Education

Learning and Teaching Committee – O Coombs informed council that an extra place on the committee for council had been secured and that a course feedback working group to establish a set of questions to allow for easy comparison of courses across the university had been set up and he had attended the first meeting. O Coombs added that the results will probably come into force in September 2014. The examination feedback working group was also set up at this meeting.

Academic Standards Committee – O Coombs informed council that in addition to absence reports being able to be submitted on MyCampus, they are also looking at being able to submit good cause claims on MyCampus also. Issues of confidentiality need to be looked at but it is hoped that this can be piloted next year.

Exam Timetables – O Coombs submitted a paper to the university regarding exam timetables and the high concentration of exams in the first two weeks rather than being over the whole four weeks. A working group is being established and O Coombs may be the chair but it has yet to meet.

J McGrellis highlighted that there was also the issue of when the timetables were released pointing out that the university had one of the latest releases of exam timetables in the Russell Group and Scotland.

E Zilberter asked if there were any reasons why the timetables were released so late on.

E Zilberter pointed out that, because of airfare rises at certain times of the year, the current process of scheduling exams was very costly for international students. J McGrellis informed him that this was an issue that had been raised in the paper presented to the university.

C Steeghs informed council that as international students officer she had received a number of complaints regarding this issue.

Discussion followed

O Coombs asked council their opinion on having exams on Saturdays.

Discussion followed where it was pointed out that this put pressure on students who have to work at weekends and the difficulties they may have getting the time off at short notice in addition to the loss of money.

F O’Donnell pointed out that exams were also scheduled for bank holidays which meant that parts of the university were closed.
