Dear Student,

Thank you for considering standing for a position on Glasgow University's Students' Representative Council.

Whether you are standing as a Sabbatical Officer, College Convenor, a Welfare and Equal Opportunities Officer, a School Representative, the decision to get involved and take an active interest in representing the students at Glasgow may be one of the best decisions you ever make during your time at Glasgow! If elected, your time on Council will provide you with great opportunities to meet new people, and shape the campus for the years ahead. You will be a voice for thousands of students at the University of Glasgow. You will be a point of contact and trusted official for both staff across the University and for people in the wider community.

The Students' Representative Council represents students on many University committees, including the governing bodies Senate which the SRC has 12 representatives on, and Court, to which a Court Representative is elected from Council. Other committees deal with issues such as: library and computer provision, student and welfare support, teaching facilities, halls of residence, catering and much more. Please contact us if you would like a full list of the committees on which the SRC has a seat.

The events we organise for students are a focal point of the University's calendar and they benefit students and the wider community alike. Council members can organise a wide range of events including Student Teaching Awards, Welfare Week, and Raising and Giving (RAG) events. Council members will also be invited to a wealth of social events, ranging from Christmas socials to the Annual Council Dinner in spring.

There are also a number of other ways you can get involved in the work the SRC does, such as through Volunteering, Student Media or helping organise one of our weeks, such as Freshers' Week. I hope that your interest in supporting the student body on a wide range of issues will not wane and that you will continue to involve yourself with the SRC and its varied schedule of events throughout the year.

Being part of the SRC is an incredibly valuable experience. It's an opportunity to make significant changes within the university, as well as a way to learn a number of new skills and meet some great people. I've loved every second of it and I'm sure you would too so I hope you run and best of luck with your campaign!

ELECTION PACK

GUIDE TO PRODUCING A MANIFESTO

Your manifesto gives you an important opportunity to tell the electorate why they should vote for you. There are no set rules as to what should be contained in a manifesto, but the following is a guide to the sort of things that often appear in them.

- Personal information.
You may want to give some personal information such as your course or year of study. This part is usually kept fairly short.
- Relevant experience.
Many candidates state experience they have which may be relevant to the position they are standing for. This may include membership of any university groups and activities out with the University. It is common to state a few specific things you have done within that group / activity or in any role you held, and link them to the functions of the position you are standing for.
- Views on current / recent events.
You may wish to state your opinions on events relevant to the functions of the SRC or to the remit of the specific position you are standing for. This gives voters the chance to see whether or not your views are similar to theirs.
- What you will do if elected.
This is arguably the most important part of the manifesto, as it gives students an idea of how you would carry out the role and of the direction in which you would want to take the services and activities within the remit. Most candidates make at least a few specific pledges, giving an indication of their priorities for the coming year.

It is important to remember that the points above are just a guide to things which are often included in manifestos. You do not have to include all of these elements, or indeed any of them.

In your manifesto, you can write what you like, so long as:

- It does not exceed the word limit (500 words for Sabbatical positions, 200 for all other positions),
- It does not contain any offensive or factually inaccurate material (The Returning Officer may judge whether something is offensive or factually inaccurate).

This rule is in the SRC election regulations, and so must be adhered to.

Please send an electronic copy of your manifesto to representation@src.gla.ac.uk

- The number of votes required to secure election shall be:

$\frac{\text{Total No. of Votes Cast} - (\text{Total No. NTS})}{\text{Number of Vacancies}} + 1$

Number of Vacancies +1

This figure will be referred to as the quota.

NTS = Non-Transferable and spoilt votes.

- If a candidate receives more than the quota all that candidate's votes will be split according to the next available preference.
- If no candidate in any count fulfils the quota the votes cast for the bottom candidate in the count will be divided according to the next available candidate.
