Available Positions

Secretary – The Secretary is in charge of liaising with clubs & societies, booking rooms, taking minutes at RAG meetings, maintaining a mailing list, overseeing the RAG email account and taking responsibility for the financial aspects of (e.g making sure there is a Float for events, counting the takings from RAG events, making sure funds raised go to the SRC admin team).

Challenges Officer - The Challenges Officer is responsible for putting together challenge fundraisers at various points throughout the year. A key part of RAGs activities involve recruiting students to raise money for one of RAGs designated charities, by offering fun activities that allow them to do so. This can include sponsored runs, hill walks or other related activities. They typically out of the scope of campus based 'events' as require students to raise money through sponsors.

Charities & Campaigns Officer – This officer is in charge of communicating with various charities and working closely with them to make sure that we are assisting them to reach their targets and objectives. As part of their responsibilities they will oversee the selection of RAGs dedicated charities (charities which RAG raise money for throughout the year) and liaising with charities that RAG may want to raise funds for through short term events or campaigns. They are also responsible for procurement of resources from charities (T-shirts, charity buckets etc) that may help aid RAG activities. Additionally, the Charities & Campaigns Officer will put together non-financial based campaigns (such as food or clothing drives).

Events Officer - The Events Officer is in charge of coming up with creative and interactive events with the sole purpose to raise funds for a variety of causes. They are in charge of putting together events throughout the year with the assistance of the other officers, except for RAG week, which the RAG week officer is responsible for.

RAG Week Officer - The RAG Week Officer is in charge of putting together a week of events and campaigns in 'RAG Week'. This week takes place in second semester of the academic year and is designed to try and make as much money as possible within a short amount of time! In the past we have linked up with the library to donate library fines and have brought alpacas to campus! The role of this officer is separate to 'Events Officer' as they are solely responsible for RAG Week alone.

Digital & Graphics Design Officer – in charge of designing posters and any promotional flyers for various events. Will also work closely with the Publicity & Social Media Officer to make sure that things are promoted well.

Publicity & Social Media Officer - in charge of administering and facilitating the different RAG social media channels. Will also work closely with the SRC social media staff to ensure that RAG committee events are well publicised on all channels possible. Also in charge of creating the promotional campaigns in liaison with the Digital & Graphics Design Officer in order to help facilitate engagement between RAG and the student body.

Marketing & Sponsorship Officer - in charge of fostering relationships with external companies to gain sponsorship for events and source prizes for auctions and raffles.
